

The Loneliest

Trauma

In the darkness
In the longest night
I set free the most dangerous
Part of my being
Hunter, hangman
Night stalker
Carnal desires
Twisted bodies
Madness in the eyes

But I just wanted
To catch your dream
Symmetrical life
Schizophrenic mind
Rake as thousand other
Delusion on invisibility

I would like to catch you
My permanent hunger
Speed me up
Your sweet blood is
My only acceptable fuel
My only acceptable fuel

The loneliest
And the most complicated
The loneliest
In the world of simple-minded

People, common creatures
Self-abasement is the sign
Of every existence
But in my world
I, the one who creates the rule
The loneliest madman
The loneliest madman

The loneliest
And the most complicated
The loneliest
In the world of simple-minded
The loneliest
And the most complicated
The loneliest
In the world of simple-minded
