

Love Of A Woman

Travis Tritt

My baby knows me, better than I do,
funny how a woman has that over a man.
I can do anything, with her here beside me.
Leaning on her's where I make my stand.

Where would we be, without the love of a woman.
Standing behind her man, even when he's wrong.
The true pure undying love of a woman.
Makes her man a fool to think he can make it alone.

My daddy was a wild one, but when he was younger,
everybody told my mama he'd be hard to tame.
Full of himself, he said sir to nobody,
But you outa' see him come a'runnin' when mama calls his name.

Man goes crazy, trying to catch his feelings,
Too much pride or maybe the words come out wrong.
But that's ok, 'cause he's still her hero,
steady as a rock her love keeps rollin' along.

Makes a man a fool to think he can make it alone.
