

Someone For Me

Travis Tritt

As I walk down this road, the rain is just starting to fall
How in the world did I let myself get so alone?
I can't tell any difference between my tears and the rain falli ng down
It's hell when your heart is in need of someone on its own

I need someone with a heart just like mine
And someone who's trying to find true love
Everywhere that I go I see people in love, the way that I wante d to be
Tell me, when will I have a love of my own?
Will there ever be someone for me?

As I sit with the rain comin' down all the memories surround me
Pieces of past loves and fast times keep haunting my mind
If I just had somebody to erase all the memories
Of yesterday's loves gone wrong
Oh, God, please have mercy, it's true love I'm lookin' to find

From someone with a heart just like mine
And someone who's tryin' to find true love
Everywhere that I go I see people in love, the way that I wante
d to be
Tell me, when will I have a love of my own?
Will there ever be someone for me?
Tell me, when will I have a love of my own?
Will there ever be someone for me?
