

A Different Room

Travis

Once in a while
I see what's going on
And disappear
Into the world behind
The one that's here

It never lasts
As long as a dream can last
And then I'm back
Into the ways that make
The days go fast
So grab my hand and make it last

And hold me close, don't leave so soon
Let all the flowers bloom
And don't let go or I will blow
Away into a different room

Is it so strange
Tell me you feel the same
Or shut my mouth
I can't pretend I haven't said it now

Let's just pretend
Our numbered days won't end
Infinity - this endless space and time
For you and me
And yours and mine, forever we

Will hold me close, don't leave so soon
Let all the flowers bloom
And don't let go or I will blow
Away into a different room.

There's no door to get me back
To get me back there
There's no window to see
I tell myself that it was no
That it was nowhere
And all becomes a dream

Hold me close, don't leave so soon
Let all the flowers bloom
And don't let go or I will blow
Away into a different room.
