

Bring Me Round

Travis

Don't tell me what you think I want
To hear you say
And if you're wanting me to go
I'll go away
And I can understand why you
Should feel so cold
When everybody wants a piece
Of you to hold

I want to be strong, and laugh along
So bring me round
I want to be set to start again
So bring me round

Don't tell me I'm aware that I
Have lost it all
And I made such a big mistake
That takes its toll
And nobody can tell me how
I'm meant to feel
I wish they could ??? someday I will learn to feel

I want to be strong, and laugh along
So bring me round
I want to be set to start again
So bring me round

But maybe the world could change
Or maybe I could change my mind
And take my place
Standing at the starting line

I want to be strong, and laugh along
So bring me round
I want to be set to start again
So bring me round

I thought I was fine, so now's the time
To bring me round
And all I can do, is wait for you
To bring me round
