

I Burn for You

Treat

Hold on, you're loosing grip now
You say you're cold and the walls close in now
I'll be your beacon in the dark, tonight
I can see you tremblin`but your heart still fights

And as long as i can breath, stand upon my feet
I Burn for you
And no matter what they say, try to throw my way
I Burn for you
I will never let them kill the flame
I'm just gonna leave it burning through the rain
everyday until my time is through
I Burn for you

Four eyes, one horizon
Just keep them open, the sun is rising
Don't need a fuse to light the spark, tonight
I can hold the candle 'til the sky gets bright

And as long as i can breath, stand upon my feet
I Burn for you
And no matter what they say, try to throw my way
I Burn for you
I will never let them kill the flame
I'm just gonna leave it burning through the rain
everyday until my time is through
I Burn for you

In the darkest hour, I'll be
The light that shows you the way
Can you hear me calling you're name
