

Learn to Fly

Treat

You took it for granted till it came undone never thought you'd loose so much so young

The tears on your pillow tell more than the tale gotta get some wind beneath your sail

Cause in time you'll see it's one more memory
once your heart breaks free

Lady's gonna learn to fly now gonna find the strength to try now gonna wave the past goodbye now gonna learn 'bout love

Lady's gonna stop her cryin' rise above the sigh she's sighing gonna find the life she's hidin'
gonna learn 'bout love

So pick up the pieces start over again let out your feelings, don't pretend

And don't stop to wonder 'bout songs you ain't sung cause the best is yet to come

There's no ghost to flee no -one else to be so let your dreams run free

Cause in time you'll see
it's one more memory
so let your dreams all run free
