

Skies Of Mongolia

Treat

Weve been out on the road for endless of days
Seen millions of friends from far away
Travellin between cities of blinding light
But the houses and roads and neon lit names
Hotels and airports all look the same
So take me away, lets board another flight

Theres a fire that burns tonight
In the skies of Mongolia
Like a woman with eyes, that shines so bright
In the skies of Mongolia

Let me take you away, no where eagles fly
Where the dirt ant the rock
Shake hands with the sky
We ride like the wind, leaving the world behind
And though the years have gone by
Im still in the game
Cant get enough of people calling my name
But in shadows and dust
Is where I get peace of mind

Theres a fire that burns tonight
In the skies of Mongolia
Like a woman with eyes, that shines so bright
In the skies of Mongolia

Theres no way you can control a nomadic heart
That holds a warrior soul, so lets fly away tonight

Theres a fire that burns tonight
In the skies of Mongolia
Like a woman with eyes, that shines so bright
In the skies of Mongolia
