

Save your breath
Don't waste your time
I can tell what's on your mind
No need to mention
What we both know
It's quite a time you picked to tell me
It's quiet time and mostly lonely
And now it's time to save the past
We know so well

It's not funny
We're not laughing like we did before
And it's not funny
It's just hurting
More and more

Take your time to figure out
It's not that plain to see
And if you need
Someone to blame
Then you can blame it all on me
It's not the time you picked to tell me
It's more the way you want to show me
And that's all fine

It's not funny
We're not laughing like we did before
And it's not funny
It's just hurting
More and more
You never showed me
You never told me
And all the little things you ment to say before

Say what you want
We know that it's true
Yesterday's older now
Seems it's all brand new
And we've never heard it before

It's not funny
We're not laughing like we did before
And it's not funny
It's just hurting
More and more
You never showed me
You never told me
And all the little things you ment to say before
