

Over My Head

Treble Charger

I've been having a bad day
Something's rubbing the wrong way
And I need something to show for
And nothing to go for
Cause I think it's over in my head
And I can't describe this feeling
I've climbed from floor to ceiling
Don't have the strength to wake up
Won't have the arms to take up
Everything and nothing
Won't wait cause I'm not bluffing
I never asked for any help
I'm asking now

Think I'll last through the weeked
Stay away from the deep end
Cause I've got nothing to show for
And I know I need more
Circling over my head

I can't describe this feeling
I've climbed from floor to ceiling
Don't have the strength to wake up
Won't have the arms to take up
Everything and nothing
Won't wait cause I'm not bluffing
I never asked for any help
I'm asking now

I don't care where it takes me
If it takes me away
I won't know if it breaks me til tomorrow comes
What have I done today?

I can't describe this feeling
I've climbed from floor to ceiling
Don't have the strength to wake up
Won't have the arms to take up
Everything and nothing
Won't wait cause I'm not bluffing
And I never asked for any help
I'm asking now
I'm asking now
