

Over And Over Again

Tree63

Whatever I hear You say I'll do
Whatever You want, I want it too
Whatever You say, Whatever You want,
I live for You.

Wherever I run, I run to You
Wherever You lead, I'm going too
Wherever I go, Wherever You are,
I live for You.

And I give myself away, every single day
Over and over again.
You're the only thing that's true
And I give myself to You - Over and over again.

There are so many ways to say,
The one thing I feel today
All I want, is all You want;
I live for You.

And I give myself away, every single day
Over and over again.
You're the only thing that's true
And I give myself to You
Over and over again.

Oh yeah, Oh yeah.

All I want, is all You want;
To live for You.

And I will always give myself away, every single day
Over and over again.
You're the only thing that's true
And I give myself to You
Over and over again.

You're the only thing that's true
So I give myself to You
Over and over again.
