

All I Was

Tremonti

Would you finally know it when it came?
Would it have a reason, have a name?
Would you truly hate it when it's gone?
And curse it all along

All I was
So unlike the way you know me
All these dreams
Are so unlike the way they were before

Would it finally change you, will you break?
Would it leave you angered, 'cause you pain?
Could it be the threat's already gone?
And was it all along?

All I was
So unlike the way you know me
All these dreams
Are so unlike the way they were before
Before

(Solo)

All I was
So unlike the way you know me
All these dreams
Are so unlike the way they were before
So unlike the way!
