

Betray Me

Tremonti

A fragile thing thrown far from everyone
Awakening, found strength but now it's gone
Let us stay force fed and beaten down
Tossed away, held down forever now

How could you betray me
Remember hope, remember faith, remember trust
Defiant, controlling
Another day, a new excuse, it's not enough

Reconcile, reveal the inner shame
The only hope, the one thing that guided me
Searching for one shred of dignity
Holding close those few and far between

How could you betray me
Remember hope, remember faith, remember trust
Defiant, controlling
Another day, a new excuse, it's not enough
It's not enough

How could you betray me
Remember hope, remember faith, remember trust
Defiant, controlling
Another day, a new excuse, it's not enough

Yeah, oh
Remember hope, remember faith, remember trust
