

Fall Again

Tremonti

Now that I can see
I'll admit my mistake
We'll show with great honor, how surely we break
We struggle within
Yeah, we fight for the cause
But soon they'll be upon us and soon we'll be lost
Oh no

And so we fall again
And so we fall again

We'll choose to be true, to life we portrayed
Assuming we're given
A choice to be made
The one that we envy oh
This path that we choose
The moment we weaken
Is the moment we lose

And now that I can see
That nothing is real
I hope we can find them
And teach them to feel

And so we fall again
And so we fall again

And I think I lost my way
You think it's so easy?
You think it's so easy?
Well I think I lost my way
And it was so easy!
And it was so easy!

And we fall again
And we fall again

And so we fall again
And so we fall again
