

The Cage

Tremonti

View the world a victim on your race
Chose to take for granted everything
Created this division by yourself
Search and you will find there's no one else

There's no one there at all

Nothing matters
You know who is right when the fight is won
The cage it shatters
Your shelter is lost and your day is done

Consequence it fits you when you're through
Found yourself with nothing left to lose
There's nothing left at all

Nothing matters
You know who is right when the fight is won
The cage it shatters
Your shelter is lost and your day is done

Crush your soul, bring no other
Let your hatred go
Take your words, they're worth nothing, let your evil show

Nothing matters
You know who is right when the fight is won
The cage it shatters
Your shelter is lost and your day is done
Chose to listen, to only the fools who has brought your end
Take forever, to swallow the pride, and it dies, and it dies within
And it dies within
