

Wish You Well

Tremonti

You've never dealt with this before You unchained your grip, you know you did, and we will not take no more
An empty hand is your sacrifice
It's your upper hand for the last time

I wish you well, I wish you
I wish you well, I wish you

Your vanity it proved such a waste
You sank so low, now you know, you can't forget your place
Can't you see it slipping away?
It's your upper hand for the last day

I wish you well, I wish you
I wish you well, I wish you
I wish you well, I wish you

(Solo)

I wish you well, I wish you
I wish you well, I wish you
I wish you well, I wish you
