Inside These Lines

Trent Dabbs

Who's the one I see? Across the table, Eyes that always seem, so familiar We sit alone so comfortably in silence If I touch you would you be surprised? Did we drift out closer to a compromise? Ohhhhhhhhh Have we lost what we had? Inside these lines inside these lines Could we watch it stay the same All this time and just be fine It's OK to see where we are, where we should be Are we gonna find ourselves Inside these lines inside these lines Inside these lines Your skin is next to mine I can feel you We've learned to pass the time in the same room So remind me of how the world stood still We were shining living just to taste the thrill Ohhhhhhhhh Have we lost what we had? Inside these lines inside these lines Could we watch it stay the same All this time and just be fine It's OK to see where we are, where we should be Are we gonna find ourselves Inside these lines inside these lines Oh oh oh I'm circling the meaning, With the lines we've drawn but not believin' I'm circling the meaning, With the lines we've drawn but not believin' Have we lost what we had? Inside these lines inside these lines Could we watch it stay the same All this time and just be fine It's OK to see where we are, where we should be Are we gonna find ourselves Inside these lines inside these lines Are we gonna find ourselves? Are we gonna find ourselves? Inside these lines inside these lines
