Change Your Mind

Trey Songz

Pretty, pretty girls all around the world
Pretty, pretty girls all around the world

I know that what you heard aint fair
Cause people gonna say shit
No different from all of these women
But do you believe her?

They budging that we here
Only got one life to live
So let me change your mind

They saying I'm bad for you, that's fine
Sometimes bad is a good time
don't you be shy
Let me change your mind

You never had a one night only
But you don't need to be lonely
Come get to know me
Let me change your mind

Your mind, your mind, your mind
Your mind, your mind, your mind
Let me change your mind

Your mind, your mind, your mind
Your mind, your mind, your mind
Let me change your mind

I feel you but it wont kill you
To let me get to you
Your lips in my kisses
So baby, stop tripping

They budging that we here
Only got one life to live
So let me change your mind

They saying I'm bad for you, that's fine
Sometimes bad is a good time
don't you be shy
Let me change your mind

You never had a one night only
But you don't need to be lonely
Come get to know me
Let me change your mind

Your mind, your mind, your mind
Your mind, your mind, your mind
Let me change your mind

Your mind, your mind, your mind
Your mind, your mind, your mind
Let me change your mind

Pretty, pretty girls all around the world
I just wanna take my time
Pretty, pretty girls all around the world
I just wanna take my time

Pretty, pretty girls all around the world
I just wanna take my time
Maybe you can let me change your mind

They saying I'm bad for you, that's fine
Sometimes bad is a good time
don't you be shy
Let me change your mind

You never had a one night only
But you don't need to be lonely
Come get to know me
Let me change your mind

Your mind, your mind, your mind
Your mind, your mind, your mind
Let me change your mind

Your mind, your mind, your mind
Your mind, your mind, your mind
Let me change your mind

Pretty, pretty girls all around the world
Pretty, pretty girls
Maybe you can let me change your mind
