

Pain (Interlude)

Trey Songz

Hurts when I laugh sometimes, feels good when I cry.
Tell me when you're lookin at me, can you see the pain in my eyes.
As the stars shine deep in the night sky.
As the sun sits way above the clouds.
As the world spins, time and time again.
Look at myself, wondering where I've been.
City to city and girl with you one nights all I got to give.
You don't know me no matter how I might appear.
Will I ever know, why do I feel so alone.
Since a child I was told, all that glitters aint gold.
Got lost in the moment. tryina find what I wanted.
So I'm drowning in regret, and I'll never forget.
Everything that I had before the good turned bad.
