

Yes, No, Maybe

Trey Songz

Yes, no, maybe

You used to love me before there ever was me
You used to hug me, lick me, suck me, kiss me, fuck me
Spent a lot of money on you, invest in your dreams
I ain't ever fronted on you, you know that means
All mine, all mine, all mine
She said he's all mine, all mine
But somehow I knew she was a bad girl, a bad girl
She's a bad girl, a bad girl

Am I tripping? Am I bugging?
Is it over? Tell me something
You don't call me no more, who you fucking?
Tell me what it is, tell me what it been

Where you go? Are you coming home anytime soon?
Are you coming home anytime soon?
Don't do this to me baby
Yes, no, maybe, yes, no

But I ain't really tripping if you ain't trying to come back
Fuck that, you can stay wherever you at
I'm sorry for talking crazy, yes, no, maybe
I just wanna know, are you playing games with my heart?
Could have swore that you swore you never changed from the start
I just wanna know, how you gonna try to out me?
Tell me where the fuck would you be without me
I'm sorry for talking crazy, yes, no, maybe
Don't do this to me baby
Don't do this to me baby
I just want to know, yes, no, maybe

I've been selfish, I can't help it
Whole lot of years, whole lot of tears, bullshit that you dealt
But you led me, and you left me
I really think that I would have made you my girl someday
Oh, but how foolish am I to think that you'd have to wait
Like you never had shit, like you ain't a bad bitch
That could get her ass kissed from a nigga madd rich
But I'm missing that lift, rolling up a splif love the way that tongue twist
Get a lift bitch, you the down shit
You the only one that can make me come quick

You know, I love you
I hope, he fucked up too

Where you go? Are you coming home anytime soon?
Are you coming home anytime soon?
Don't do this to me baby
Yes, no, maybe, yes, no

But I ain't really tripping if you ain't trying to come back
Fuck that, you can stay wherever you at
I'm sorry for talking crazy, is it a yes, no, maybe?
I just wanna know, are you playing games with my heart?
Could have swore that you swore you never changed from the start

I'm sorry for talking crazy, is it a yes, no, maybe?
I just wanna know, how you gonna try to out me?
Tell me where the fuck would you be without me?
I'm sorry for talking crazy, yes, no, maybe
Don't do this to me baby
Don't do this to me baby
I just want to know, yes, no, maybe

Seems like I haven't been missing
This cannot be a vacation
Started off saying I was done
But when you're in love with someone
You can running, running back
I'm running, running back

But I ain't really tripping if you ain't trying to come back
Fuck that, you can stay wherever you at
I'm sorry for talking crazy, yes, no, maybe
I just wanna know, are you playing games with my heart?
Could have swore that you swore you never changed from the start
I'm sorry for talking crazy, yes, no, maybe?
I just wanna know, how you gonna try to out me?
Tell me where the fuck would you be without me?
I'm sorry for talking crazy, yes, no, maybe
Don't do this to me baby
Don't do this to me baby
I just want to know, yes, no, maybe

How the fuck you gon leave me here tripping?
I miss you, don't make me have to come and get you
Yes, no, maybe
Don't do this to me baby, I'm going crazy
Don't do this to me baby, yes, no, maybe
