

Dear God

Tricky

Dear God

I hat to be a bother, but I gotta say
This world is getting crazier with every day
I hope You'll hear me out now as I stop and pray

Dear God

People take your words and try to twist them round
I know You can't be happy with what's goin' down
I'm searchin' for some answers, but they can't be found
Can You help me out, dear God?

Dear God

Just the other night I heard somebody say
What's the use believin' in You anyway?
I guess it was just heartache talkin' through the pain
It's a cryin' shame

Dear God

I know You're disappointed in the things we've done
Can't they see the truth that they're all running from?
Try to preach You message with a loaded gun
What they thinkin' of, dear God
Everybody's searching for an easy solution
They can't see beyond, the selfish world they're living in
Your words of love get lost, in all the confusion, yes they do
But I still believe, someday you're gonna speak to me

Dear God

I know You've got a million other calls to take
You're dealing with a lot of things that just won't wait
But there is one request that I just gotta make

Dear God

Won't You send a sign down, just to ease my doubt?
I'm trying to hear You, but the silence is so loud
I think I see a rainbow from behind the clouds
And I hear You now, dear God
