

All My Floating

Triggerfinger

Saw you from the gutter,
Hanging on a star.
You never came too close,
You just always went too far.

My sweetest darling, disastrous doll.
You're the morning after, dancing on my fall.

I don't wanna lose my mind, it's true.
I don't wanna lose my mind in you.

[I don't wanna lose my mind.]

You are the master of my desperate delights.
You tame my horses, while my memories start to fight.
There's so much lovin', in the way you sell your fate.
But you can't draw my everything 'cause the hour is getting late.

I don't wanna lose my mind, it's true.
I don't wanna lose my mind in you.
I don't wanna lose my mind, it's true.
I don't wanna lose my mind in you.
