

All Night Long

Triggerfinger

Never knew the softness of her tender kiss Don't know if she's weak or strong All I know is that she's every dream I dream All night long

Never heard her say a single word of love Don't know her fate o r her soul Cause she only speaks to me in dreams I've dreamed A ll night long

When I sleep she tells me she's in love with me And how much sh e needs me to be near But at best my dreams is just a fantasy I f I touch her hand she'll disappear

I don't want a love that's just a memory Fate how could you be so warm Now I've got to find the woman who's haunting me All ni ght long
