

Trail Of Love

Triggerfinger

Walk with me, if the path is free
Give me your hand and talk to me
Talk to me, mysteriously
Give me your hand and we will see

I've got to try, here and now
Lose the shame
If you'll allow
Raise a brow and make a move
Terrified you'll disapprove

Pure as light, light of day
Trouble comes and fades away
Thoughts already blurred and fogged,
Searching for a dialog,

Join me in this dance
Searching for a little romance

You've got me back upon this trail of love
My heart feels bigger than the sky above
Don't be afraid 'cause I've got room enough
For you

Walk with me, we will see
Give me your hand and talk to me
Talk to me, mysteriously
Give me your hand, the path is free

Join me in this dance
Searchin' for a little romance
Fueled by distant passion play
There's nothing standing in our way

You've got me back upon this trail of love
My heart feels bigger than the sky above
Don't be afraid 'cause I've got room enough
For you
