

Blind

Trijntje Oosterhuis

Something deep inside I can't control
Time will tell is all they say
Woke up at 9 am, I can't recall
The things we said the other day
You look into my eyes instinctively
I'm keeping thoughts you'll never see
A burden on my mind
I've never known that part of me

Blind, to everything I feel
Unable to reveal
Just moving on
With eyes wide shut
and pain in my heart
Blind, to all that I can be
It's locked inside of me
No one outside
Can see the truth inside of me

I run ahead of time, and find myself
In places that I've never been
Two blocks down the road I hate myself
Fall into the same routine
Thinking how much more my life could be
But then again another day
Words left me behind
Forgot all I meant to say

Blind, to everything I feel
Unable to reveal
Just moving on
With eyes wide shut
and pain in my heart
Blind, to all that I can be
It's locked inside of me
No one outside
Will see the truth inside of me

Sooner or later I must face reality
No longer hiding cause I don't wanna be

Blind to everything you feel
Unable to reveal
Just moving on
With eyes wide shut and pain in your heart
Blind to everything you need
And all that we could be
But I hope some day
You'll see the truth inside of me
Inside of me
