

Love Is Still The Answer

Trijntje Oosterhuis

Twenty years ago
I would have told you that the world was round
Good and sound
Freedom bound
The future was secure
Now I'm not so sure
It seems like gravity has been reversed
And there it was
Nothing works and everybody hurts
Yes there's a trail of tears
Down through the years
Of broken hearts
It's still so hard
To let the sunshine in
Love's the answer
No matter what, I swear love is
Still the answer
Just like it always was
Such a simple truth
Love never changes or betrays a friend
From the start,
Love was part of some fantastic plan
Some brotherhood of man
And now it's down to us
We either shine the light or darkness rules
Our children lose
We're free to choose a fate to find our way
Beyond this veil of tears
The sky is clear
And every star stands for a heart
To let the sunshine in
Love's the answer
No matter what, I swear love is
Still the answer
Just like it always was
Love's the answer
No matter what, I swear love is
Still the answer
Just like it always was
Love's the answer
No matter what, I swear love is
Still the answer
Just like it always was
Love's the answer
No matter what, I swear love is
