

What More Can I Say

Trijntje Oosterhuis

Tell me is there something heavy on your mind
Something really isn't right
I can see it in your eyes
Is there something to reveal about the way you feel
'Cause nothing's going to make things right
Even if I stay all night
And I know words are left unspoken
There is something that you should have said

My love is here today
But you are far away
What more can I do than loving you
I stand in front of you, I'll leave it up to you
What more can I say
What more can I do than loving you

This time you realize life has passed you by
Time slipping through your hands
While you were making other plans
Wherever you are you always look for more
What is it that you're looking for
I don't know you anymore
Once again words are left unspoken
There is something that you should have said

My love is here today
But you are far away
What more can I do than loving you
I stand in front of you, I'll leave it up to you
What more can I say
What more can I do than loving you

What more can I say
What more can I do than loving you

My love is here today
But you are far away
What more can I do than loving you
I stand in front of you, I leave it up to you
What more can I say
What more can I do than loving you
