

Whatever You Want

Trijntje Oosterhuis

If this is dreaming then I won't wake up , baby
I'm looking at you and my morning coffee cup
Sometimes I wonder
Am I wrong or am I right
I'm still hung over, no water with the wine
But I think I love you
And that's all that matters now
Something wonderful has happened
You got to me somehow
Whispering sweet things in the name of love
Come on now talk to me baby
Say it

Whatever you want , I'll be there
I will be your sunshine everywhere
And it won't be long before I take you there
I'll be there , I'll be there

We must be crazy, and we ain't got no sense
It's like the morning after in a tv romance
Before you go your way
And I go mine
Oh, I'd like to see ya again some other time
There's no way back
To the way that it was
I could be wrong baby, but I think that this is love
Juste one more time before you disappear
Give all your loving, tell me what I wanna hear

Mid 8
I will be there when the morning comes
You realise that life has just begun
Can we both believe that love won't lose this time
I will be your sunshine I'll be there
It won't be long before I take you there
I'll do anything to have you in my life
