

I Want

Trina

I can have whatever I want, I can have anything I want,
I can buy anything I want, I can have all the shit that you don't,
Whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want, whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want.
I can have whatever I want, I can have anything I want,
I can buy anything I want, I can have all the shit that you don't,
Whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want, whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want.

I can have whatever I want, bitch, I'm the shit that you thought,
You ain't about a shit, you ain't got shit, fuck any nigga you know.
I work these niggas with the magic touch, and even talk on the phone,
If your cash ain't acting up, you sayonara, I'm gone.
My wardrobe retarded, whole check my closet,
Just set peace get low, my middle name's Anati.
I head on with my rockstars and just stand the party,
Rolex on my arm, shed niggas down with the watches.
'Cause I'm on, bitch, I'm on, holyday shit noon,
And once I put my game down his main bitch is through.
My ass fatter when I make it clap, oh, that's when shit get real,
And you're damn right, I can't do shit with a nigga that's still in the gym.
To fuck with this bitch you need some aims,
Mercy you better, I did the bims,
Bad bitch, I pitted you a couple chips.
And if you're speaking my language I can even bring through a frame.

I can have whatever I want, I can have anything I want,
I can buy anything I want, I can have all the shit that you don't,
Whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want, whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want.
I can have whatever I want, I can have anything I want,
I can buy anything I want, I can have all the shit that you don't,
Whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want, whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want.

I can have whatever I want, we do everything you don't,
My money long, my money grown, so main shit for me to flown,
Just bought me a new rari, last month Maserati,
My bitches bad like trainer, from they face down that body.
I hit the mall, don't buy shit, 'cause I already bought the fly shit,
Pass it full of bags and tags, told me you gotta try shit.
Got the signs, I can't pronounce, hermit's Givenchi,
Whip 'em with them whithes, this big calls by fly G.
Bitches keep me clean, they all carry selenes,
I live your niggas dreams, got real women on team.
Lay out, take your daddy and make sure he killing.
I can have whatever I want, my money stacks to the ceiling.
My crib calls me a million, it's plaid out from chilling,
Ain't got no bills, I'm writing this, so hell yeah, I'm chilling.
Trying to find a spot in Miami, I'm a superstar, no Grammis.
Just griding hard and getting it, now let go of my family.

I can have whatever I want, I can have anything I want,

I can buy anything I want, I can have all the shit that you don't,
Whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want, whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want.
I can have whatever I want, I can have anything I want,
I can buy anything I want, I can have all the shit that you don't,
Whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want, whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want.

I can have whatever I want, I can get whatever I need,
You niggas don't know what I own.
You niggas ain't got no grind, you niggas ain't got no hustle,
Nigga like me forever gonna shine.
I stay on that greezy, nigga staying busy,
I'm making hustle while you see me, till I get busy.
Don't rap about what I do really, you rapping silly,
DCC, that's my committee, you worth a couple of milli,
Therefore I do whatever I feel, I know that Cali kill,
Play with that green, stay on that grind, like happy grin
More money equal more power, my power's getting me more money,
I went from working the Sundays to the rap game in the ironic.
I should write a book, "Getting money for dummies"
Hundreds after one hundreds, I do it after I done it,
I said I should write a book, "Getting money for dummies",
Hundreds after one hundreds, I can have whatever I want.

I can have whatever I want, I can have anything I want,
I can buy anything I want, I can have all the shit that you don't,
Whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want, whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want.
I can have whatever I want, I can have anything I want,
I can buy anything I want, I can have all the shit that you don't,
Whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want, whatever I want, whatever I want,
I can have what I want.
