All you've been searchin' and lookin' in all the wrong places Search no more. Love is here.

Hey I had to write this song 'cause the masses are mistaken They've confused the word love with infatuation Its sad 'cause when we lackin love the wrong path is taken They missing out 'cause getting true love is past amazing It's more than a passing statement, a short lasting craving It ain't refusing not to wait, it ain't mad impatience Some been tryna find love in that guy or gal they dating And before long they hormones are fastly raging Yeah true love is a must, but that ain't love, it's lustin' Love would never ask you to ungodly stuff Its honest plus, it ain't wrong and hard to trust Its everlasting and can't happen when the heart's corrupt Resting on false love you must realized you'll plummet 'Cause real love is much more than butterflies in ya stomach Most of us are out of line 'cause really the bottom line Is we looking for love but ain't sure what we tryna find

You tried the pleasures of this world but still there's something missing 'Cause when you close your eyes at night you can feel your heart still searching

I know you tired of being let down so you look for love in all the wrong places

So search no more 'cause it's the life of Christ your soul's been missing

We must learn that love is perfect, it never will fail I'm ready to tell, its needed and forever prevails It's so glorious, I'm sure we need some more its true The world's confused and seems to have a distorted view Most think love's a sweet kiss, a nice statement in time But don't know that love is sacred, its patient and kind It's not filled with sinful jealousy, doesn't brag and boast It's priceless and can't be bought with a stack of dough It's so true. It's not rude. It doesn't seek its own It's selfless, I'm telling this because we need to know It's not easily angered, keeps no record of wrongs It forgives, it's a blessing and forever is strong It don't delight in evil but it likes the truth It's liberating never fading and it's righteous too I'd like for you to put love first in here It always protects, always trusts, hopes, and perseveres

You tried the pleasures of this world but still there's something missing 'Cause when you close your eyes at night you can feel your heart still searching

I know you tired of being let down so you look for love in all the wrong pla

So search no more 'cause it's the life of Christ your soul's been missing

I can't stress enough the fact that love will never end It's eternal better than this other stuff so let it in Such an unusual experience beyond expression We need it, we gotta seek it, yeah love is a blessin' Utter perfection, but something most guys will lack So the remaining real question's, "Where you find it at?"

I know you wondering if you don't wanna die and miss love Seek Christ, 'cause the Bible says that GOD is Love For GOD so loved the world, HE would redeem you and me Yeah it was love that made HIM bleed and cling to a tree That's the truth, so without the SON you losing HE shows love and for that there's no substitution We try to fill the void with things of all sorts But let us stop settling for things that fall short HE can be the lover of our souls turn now to Christ Lookin' for love? Well true love is found in Christ

You tried the pleasures of this world but still there's something missing 'Cause when you close your eyes at night you can feel your heart still searc hing

I know you tired of being let down so you lookin' for love in all the wrong places

So search no more, 'cause it's the life of Christ your soul's been missing

You tried the pleasures of this world but still there's something missing 'Cause when you close your eyes at night you can feel your heart still searc hing

I know you tired of being let down so you lookin' for love in all the wrong places

So search no more, 'cause it's the life of Christ your soul's been missing