

A Lover Is Forever

Trisha Yearwood

I think I understand
The reason you won't stay with me
You think a ring upon your hand will solve you insecurity

So go ahead and play your games
If that's what you must do Nothing here remains the same but the way I feel for you

I can watch you walk away and I know that I'll get by And I know just what to say but honey I can't tell a lie

So figure out what you must do I know you think you're so damn clever You can marry any time you want but a lover is forever
