O Mexico

Trisha Yearwood

I'm catchin' this south bound train I've had enough of the pouring rain Chilled to the bone, I have to go Love was never a friend of mine The only friend that I have is time It's down the track, ain't lookin' back Mexico, O Mexico I long to see your border town Mexico, O Mexico Adios mi corazon The cars are clickin' the night along But all I hear is a heartbreak song Haunting me, relentlessly Come the morning and I will stand On the banks of the Rio Grande A brand new day, wash those tears away There's nothin' like the feel Of the steel against the steel And you can't forget the crying of the rail There's nothin' like the sight Of a moonlit desert night To heal a broken heart that was so frail
