

Casualty

Tristan Prettyman

We met out of luck and it was so far from the truth
We talked and we laughed and there was nothing we couldn't do
So high on a cloud never woulda ever thought to look down
You'd think I'd know better now...

Live to learn & learn to love
I wanna know about it all
I would run & take the jump
Cause I'd be happy just to fall

For you - nothing I wouldn't do
For you - nothing I couldn't prove
In a split second maybe just for a minute
I would let you get the best of me
In a split second maybe just for a minute
I would be your casualty

When its good, so good and it won't compare to anything yCause You read me like a book and for once I didn't run away

It's all I've been waiting for I've never been so sure

For you - nothing I wouldn't do
For you - nothing I couldn't prove
In a split second maybe just for a minute
I would let you get the best of me
In a split second maybe just for a minute
I would be your casualty

You give me a reason, something I could believe in
And now I can see that its all because of you, because of you

For you - nothing I wouldn't do
For you - nothing I couldn't prove
In a split second maybe just for a minute
I would let you get the best of me
In a split second maybe just for a minute
I would be your casualty
