

Sanguine Sky

Tristania

Sanguine Sky
My blood is tainted; azure blue
A setting sun bleeding
Into an ocean of tears, for you
It's an exodus from the dark
The night is breathing; the night is exhaling
Falling, falling -- up a staircase
Towards the moon, the stars, and a Venus-kissed Mars Blood runs south
as the days grow darker and this fight is eating at me
I see the dead awaken
My fate forsaken; I'm free
I am talking on a hidden line
She says she's feeding; she says she's dead
She says -- there is a downward spiral
From the moon, the stars, the ever-warring Mars
