Falling to Grey

In this day aspirations star decayed It was the light of our desires A fire burns in the mind Torching once fundamental truths Downfall Self loathing it's your state of mind Drowning in dejection Homicidal of your talents It's mental suicide Downfall One by one they all drown Down the path I can't hear

To feel this pain with you To feel this pain with you To feel this pain I'm falling to grey To feel this pain with you Buried dreams will withered dried Sorrow is your guide You haven't the will to carry on You'll feel better when you're gone Downfall One by one they all drown Down the path I can't hear

If I may realign the scriptures For fallacy's decay Reclamation of the spirit First step in taking back your life Downfall One by one they all drown Down the path I can't hear Trivium
