

Incineration: The Broken World

Trivium

They're straight from the booklet. Enjoy!
Incineration: The Broken World
I am but a fragment
The lesser part of something more
this division leaves me
incomplete

I long for completion
To be reassembled; detached
I am the obsolete

Those who create for Another's need
Will never revel
They'll only bleed

Surrounding encumbrance
Coerced habitation with those
I cannot stand to be near

Ironically scathing
This life that I work so hard for Keeps me from what I need

Voracious packs
Only exist to feed
Off everything that I have in me

Collapsing upon myself
The light burned out so very
Long ago
So long ago
It's plain to see

So watch as I spiral down
Collide and crash into the Broken world

Descend downwards into
The dark
Are you not entertained by
The fall?
Only misery enthralls

All my sadness and pain
On display
It's the only way you'd ever
Need me
The only way you would Believe me

Collapsing upon myself
The light burned out so very
Long ago
So long ago
It's plain to see

So watch as I spiral down
Collide and crash into the Broken world
Broken world
You've broken me

Collapsing upon myself
The light burned out so very
Long ago
So long ago
It's plain to see

So watch as I spiral down
Broken world
