He who walks the fire breathes!

He who walks the fire breathes
Unlike the rest
Living by the bloody creed
Kirisute gomen
Air of battle tasting stale
Reeks of deceit
Send the bitter straight to hell
Kirisute gomen

In their wretched guts all they want is to feed Unending, covetous hunger known as greed As the last legion makes it's way to the skies

I can see in their eyes
They've already died
Inside, but as for the outside
I'll take their fucking heads

Quake has bred with the storm Conceiving war Wicked stampeding hordes Kirisute gomen

In their wretched guts all they want is to feed Unending, covetous hunger known as greed As the last legion makes it's way to the skies

I can see in their eyes
They've already died
Inside, but as for the outside
I'll take their fucking heads (2x)

I will never be what they Want me to
I live by my own path in life
No turning
Back now, I won't be held down
Forced into a shallow grave built upon their empty ways
There's no turning back

There's hell to pay, such disarray A bloodied mess, flesh masquerade With all the blood making a flood You made your path by crossing us

He who spits the fire seethes All he detests Decapitating, bloody creed Kirisute gomen

In their wretched guts all they want is to feed Unending, covetous hunger known as greed As the last legion makes it's way to the skies

I can see in their eyes

They've already died
Inside, but as for the outside
I'll take their fucking heads (2x)

I will never be what they
Want me to
I live by my own path in life
No turning
Back now, I won't be held down
Forced into a shallow grave built upon their empty ways
There's no turning back

I will never be what they
Want me to
I live by my own path in life
There's no turning back
