

Vengeance

Trivium

I will drown you in your legacy
Pulling you under the black waves which you've created
In the moonlight you're fighting for silver luster
Perhaps you could call this a baptism.

Did you tell them it would bring them closer to God?
So that's how you can call this your baptism.

I'll be the servant who drives purity through the heart
And there's a filter you need, so our sin is all we bring
I'll be the torch to burn it all right down into the ground
And there's a filter you need, so our sin is all we bring

Heaven will never be a sight for you
What goes on in your crazed mind? Mad man clairvoyant
You were supposed to provide guidance, protection
But it was violation you bestowed

Did you tell them it would bring them closer to God?
So that's how you can call this your baptism.

I'll be the servant who drives purity through the heart
And there's a filter you need, so our sin is all we bring
I'll be the torch to burn it all right down into the ground
And there's a filter you need, so our sin is all we bring

Held down, force-fucked, raped of innocence
Shattering the cradle in the name of God!

I'll be the servant who drives purity through the heart
And there's a filter you need, so our sin is all we bring
I'll be the torch to burn it all right down into the ground
And there's a filter you need, so our sin is all we bring

Pound the nails through with teeth and skin
I'll Leave you to die choking on your blood
Choking on your blood!
