

No Good Very Bad Day

Tsunami Bomb

Why is it me? This is not my day.

I burnt myself with coffee and my brand new doggie ran away.

How can it be? I cannot believe

I don't have any money and I have to pay the bills today.

I wish that I could run away

Myself esteem is low At losing I'm a pro

But there is one thing that I know

It'd all be good if I could just stay home

What should I do?

He told me "I Hate you!"

I don't know where to live next year and my guitar won't stay i n tune

Where should I go? I am so all alone

I broke my new computer and nobody calls me on the phone

I wish I weren't so accident prone
