

when a girl feels so alone
what a tease to throw a bone should've just stayed at home
when a girl feels so alone

why'd you think i'd put out your fire?
why'd you think i'd put out your fire?
don't you know i breathe in fire?
breathe out fire?

what if my own skin makes my skin crawl?
what if my own flesh is suburban sprawl?
what happened between us makes sense if i'm nothing you're all
if i'm nothing at all

why'd you think i'd put out your fire?
why'd you think i'd put out your fire?
don't you know i breathe in fire?
breathe out fire?

you are always on my mind
we're going outside

i am not beautiful
i am not beautiful
i am unknown as the world goes underground
and i am not beautiful
and i am not magic yet
but i am in love at the end of the world
