Fiya

when a girl feels so alone what a tease to throw a bone should've just stayed at home when a girl feels so alone

why'd you think i'd put out your fire? why'd you think i'd put out your fire? don't you know i breathe in fire? breathe out fire?

what if my own skin makes my skin crawl? what if my own flesh is suburban sprawl? what happened between us makes sense if i'm nothing you're all if i'm nothing at all

you are always on my mind we're going outside i am not beautiful i am not beautiful i am unknown as the world goes underground and i am not beautiful and i am not magic yet but i am in love at the end of the world
