

Here comes the reveal,
So get out of the way
There is too much too feel,
An emotional landslide

Full of sentiment,
But never sentimental
I'm a lonely man,
Surrounded by people

Pack it up, pack it in
This is who I should have been
But instead I waste my time (time)

well I'm a northern star,
Here in the darkness
I'm a fat cigars
Burning embers

Full of sentiment,
But never sentimental
I'm a lucky man
Surrounded by people

Pack it up, pack it in
This is who I should have been
But instead I waste my time (time)

ooo wooo ooo wooohhh

Pack it up, pack it in
This is who I should have been
But instead I waste my time (time)

Pack it up, pack it in
This is who I should have been
But instead I waste my time (time)
