

Killing Today For A Better Tomorrow

Turmoil

life sacrificed an empty shell you molded into blind blind with blind devotion you closed your eyes to propaganda consume the lies what is this pride you're so quick to convey pride i'll never understand i'll never understand standing in line learning to die for those colors that bleed bleeding away all sense of value all dignity pledge your allegiance bow down to greed i will not bleed i will not suffer i will not be your fking martyr
