

Shadow Of Lies

Turning Point

Do you remember what you said
It was hard for me to forget
I put trust in you it all fell through
Something I'll always regret
Remember I was young
I thought I could do no wrong
But lies grew stale and bonds were weak
Bonds I thought were so fucking strong
It makes me so mad
I stood in the shadow of lies
And felt no pain
The truth comes out and friendship dies
Friendship dies
In the shadow of lies
