Turnover

I know that the rain falls hard when it falls
And I know you're more of the Relaxing in the sunshine type of person
It hurts when you gotta be at home and stay inside

Scream and shout
Throw your hands up until you go blue in the face
You can try all you want
You still won't make things change

You could like the afternoon or night time
And I'll like the morning
I was thinking you could love a song that I hate
I'd still play it for you

If you know that it's a game
You make the rules
And you can play
And you can laugh when you're behind

You want to run away to somewhere warm
I know it's cold but if you wait you'll enjoy it more
It's not as serious as you might think
You're probably looking away while you

Scream and shout
Throw your hands up until you go blue in the face
You can try all you want
You still won't make things change
(After you know it's all a game then when it storms play in the rain)
