

Blind

Tuxedomoon

It's gonna pay off later
It's a logical end
All the sign are pointing to it
Everything's turning to red and you see blue

So that's why you like it up here
When everything you want
Is not the way you want it
You're on the right track

Sit back
Hold tight
The more ridiculous you are in this life
The more it's going to pay off later

Learn to see through the lies of your eyes
See like the blind
Only an addict can take the cure
Only the ugly can apprehend beauty

Only the prisoner can be set free
Only the dead can live
Only thieves can steal from themselves
Only the stupid can learn

Only the only child
Can miss nobody
When you're blind you can see the further you are
The closer you get

Learn to see through the lies of your eyes
See like the blind
I was thinking
Then I stopped

Learn to see
Through the lies
Of your eyes

See like the blind
See like the blind
