All men condemned by men to die Damned by blind bitch in hallowed halls Hear it, heed this call:

Oh fucking eternal

Infinity's hourglass will measure all measure all
So, power

Cover your balls 'Cause we swing kung fu

Oh fucking eternal Oh fucking eternal

Afraid of thunder children, so hide your ears
Hope your fortress holds up for many many years
Shudder, it's a shame
Lightning, call the game
Send us up a baby boy
Let the smoke carry his name

If it's a girl let her shine

We will be

Oh fucking eternal

The hour of man is nigh So gather up all supplies And stack 'em up high Stack 'em up high

Faith, Nathan I could see it in your eyes Warmth, Nathan I can see it in your eyes

Golden houses, silver brides
Immortal erection, tongues untied

Oh fucking eternal Oh fucking
