

Ain't That A Bitch

Twelve Foot Ninja

Will it ever get better than this?
If it ever gets better than this
If it ever gets better than this
I'm walking out of here

Cause I've done everything I couldn't
Everything I wouldn't
Oh, yes, I've done everything I couldn't
Everything I wouldn't

Spitting poison, with a head full of piss
Then you raise the stakes by raising your fist
I could waste my time on giving a shit
I'm walking out of here

Cause I've done everything I couldn't
Everything I wouldn't
Oh, yes, I've done everything I couldn't
Everything I wouldn't

Without you I wouldn't have found my strength
Through your abuse I learned to love myself
You'll imprison somebody else
You think he can save you
But the shoe won't fit
Ain't that a bitch?
Bitch

Will it ever get better than this?
If it ever gets better than this
If it never gets better than this
I'm walking out of here

Yes, I've done everything I couldn't
Everything I wouldn't
Oh yes, I've done everything I couldn't
Everything I wouldn't

How you loath yourself
And everybody else
Has been scratched to death
You're a fucking mess
Your liquid friends
A damsel in distress
Is it hard to breathe with my hands around your neck?
