

Liberation

Twelve Foot Ninja

Awakening

To all we were and all that we've become

Apathy

Your vain in desperation

Hail to the thief

The cavalcade of victims interfaced

To revere the hate, the orchestration

Say oh can you see the manipulation

I have a dream of liberation

Guarantees now worth the print of paper bloodstained currency

We rape our world of patience

Awakening

When we begin to face all we've allowed to be

In our name

A transmutation

Say oh can you see the manipulation

I have a dream of liberation

Say oh can you see the manipulation
