

In your eyes I have beheld the mother
In your eyes my own have crossed the sea
A tide of thought of you forming to heaven
In that blessed place where your eyes gaze on me

Am I dreaming you?
Or are you dreaming me?
Could I be dreaming you?
Could I be the fool, for you are all I see

Could I be the fool, for you are all I see
Could I be the fool, for you are all I see

In the night you've entered my temple (entered my temple)
I have heard you whispering the signs (Whispering the signs)
I know that I have held you before
We will always walk the deserts seas entwined

Am I dreaming you?
Or are you dreaming me?
Could I be dreaming you?
Could I be the fool, for you are all I see

Am I dreaming you?
Or are you dreaming me?
Could I be dreaming you?
Could I be the fool, for you are all I see
